FILING REQUIREMENTS

FILING THRESHOLD

Filing requirements are based on your residency status and the amount of your income. Dependents and students are subject to the same filing requirements as anyone else.

- Nonresidents of Virginia with income at or above the filing threshold must file if any of their income is from Virginia sources.
- Residents of Virginia with income at or above the minimum filing threshold must file.

For information on Virginia residency requirements, please read the next section, "Residency Status."

If your Virginia Adjusted Gross Income (VAGI) is at or above the threshold amount shown in the table below, you are required to file. VAGI is the Adjusted Gross Income on your federal return plus any Virginia additions, minus any Virginia subtractions. Information on Virginia additions and subtractions is included in the instructions for lines 29 - 42 of Form 763, later in this book.

If your income is only from wages, salaries and savings account interest, your VAGI is usually the same as the Adjusted Gross Income shown on your federal return. Once you have computed your VAGI, check the chart below to see if you need to file a Virginia income tax return.

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO FILE IF YOU ARE:

Single and your VAGI is less than	$5,000
Married filing a joint return (both must have Virginia Source Income) and your combined VAGI is less than	$8,000
Married, spouse has no income from any source and your VAGI is less than	$4,000
Married, filing a separate return and your VAGI is less than	$4,000

If you are not required to file, but you had Virginia income tax withheld, you are entitled to a refund of the amount withheld. You must file a return to get a refund.

We periodically review and update our records to make sure that we have correct return information. Sometimes, we have to contact taxpayers to confirm that they did not need to file for a given year. As a result, even if you do not need to file a return for 2001, you may receive an inquiry at a later date to verify your VAGI.

RESIDENCY STATUS

Nonresidents

Nonresidents of Virginia with Virginia adjusted gross income at or above the filing threshold must file if any of their income is from Virginia sources. Income from Virginia sources is income received from labor performed, business done, or property located in Virginia, including gains from sales, exchanges or other dispositions of real estate and intangible personal property having a situs in Virginia. Virginia source income includes income passed through from a partnership, S corporation or limited liability company that does business in Virginia. It also includes business income and proceeds from real estate transactions passed through by a Virginia trust. It generally does not include personal savings account interest or dividends from an individual's stock market investments.

Those who maintain legal domicile outside Virginia and live in Virginia less than 183 days of the taxable year (or do not live in Virginia at all) are nonresidents. Also, members of the U.S. armed forces who have another state as their home of record (legal domicile) are generally classified as nonresidents of Virginia, even though they may be stationed in Virginia for years.

Members of the Armed Forces

Active duty pay for members of the armed forces is taxable only in the state of legal domicile, regardless of where stationed. You must file as a nonresident if you are in the military, domiciled in another state and have any other income that is from Virginia sources.

The residency status and filing requirements for a spouse or a dependent of an armed forces member are not connected to those of the armed forces member. If you are a spouse or a dependent of an armed forces member who is stationed in Virginia, you must determine your own residency status and filing obligations.

Exceptions For Certain Nonresidents

If you are a nonresident of Virginia who commutes daily to work in Virginia from Kentucky or the District of Columbia, you do not have to file if:

- You have no actual place of abode in Virginia at any time during the year;
- Salaries and wages are your only Virginia source income; and
- Your salaries and wages are subject to income taxation by Kentucky or the District of Columbia.

If you are a nonresident of Virginia who is a resident of Maryland, Pennsylvania or West Virginia and you earn salaries and wages in Virginia, you are exempt from filing a Virginia income tax return and paying Virginia income tax if:

- Your only income from sources in Virginia is from salaries and wages; and
- Your salaries and wages are subject to income taxation by Maryland, Pennsylvania or West Virginia.

If you are a domiciliary resident of Kentucky, Maryland, Pennsylvania, West Virginia or the District of Columbia and have income from Virginia sources other than wages and salaries, (such as business income or gain from the sale of a residence), you must file a Virginia Nonresident Individual Income Tax Return, Form 763, and pay tax on income not specifically exempted above.

Nonresident's Virginia Taxable Income

The Virginia taxable income of a nonresident individual, partner, shareholder or beneficiary is Virginia taxable income computed as a resident, multiplied by the ratio of net income, gain, loss and deductions from Virginia sources to net income, gain, loss and deductions from all sources. Complete Part V of Form 763 to determine the income and percentage of your income from Virginia sources.

For a nonresident individual who is a shareholder in an S corporation that has business activity in Virginia, Virginia taxable income includes the nonresident's share of the taxable income of the corporation. The nonresident's share of any net operating loss of the corporation is deductible from Virginia taxable income. See "Net operating losses" on page 19 of these instructions.

A partnership or similar business (not a corporation) does not pay Virginia income tax in the business' name. Partners must report on their individual income tax returns their share of the partnership income and pay tax on it.

Nonresident Operating A Motor Carrier Business

A nonresident operating a motor carrier business, which carries property or passengers and uses the highways of this state, must apportion the net profit of the business to this state using the ratio of vehicle miles in this state to total vehicle miles everywhere, unless the nonresident meets one of the two exceptions below.

"Vehicle miles" means miles traveled by vehicles which you own or operate to haul property or carry passengers for a charge or fare. The amount of income apportioned to this state will be considered income from Virginia sources on Part V (Form 763), together with any other business or earned income from sources within this state. A separate schedule must be attached to your return to show the computation of Virginia apportioned income from carrier operations.

A carrier meeting either of the two exceptions below is not required to apportion income to Virginia. In such cases, a return must be filed, but it will only be necessary to enter the name and address in the address block and to attach a statement to the return that "Virginia vehicle miles" falls within one of the exceptions. The statement must indicate which exception applies and must reflect Virginia vehicle miles and total vehicle miles.

EXCEPTION 1: A carrier which neither owns nor rents real or tangible personal property other than vehicles in Virginia, makes no pickups or deliveries in Virginia, and traveled no more than 50,000 vehicle miles in Virginia, provided that the Virginia vehicle miles are less than 5% of total vehicle miles.

EXCEPTION 2: A carrier which neither owns nor rents real or tangible personal property other than vehicles in Virginia and which makes no more than twelve round trips into Virginia during the taxable year to either haul property or carry passengers, provided that the Virginia vehicle miles are less than 5% of the total vehicle miles traveled during the taxable year.

Nonresidents File Form 763

Generally, nonresidents with income from Virginia sources must file a Virginia return if their income is at or above the filing threshold. Nonresidents who meet the criteria described on the previous page under "Exceptions for Certain Nonresidents" are not required to file.

Usually, when one spouse is a resident and the other spouse is a nonresident, each spouse whose income is at or above the filing threshold must file separately. The resident must file on Form 760. The nonresident spouse must file Form 763. There are only two circumstances in which such a couple can file jointly on the same return. If both spouses have income and all of the nonresident's income is Virginia source income, a joint resident return (Form 760) may be filed. Also, if the nonresident spouse has no income at all, a joint resident return may be filed.

Members Of The Armed Forces

Use Form 763 if you are in the military, domiciled in another state and have any other income that is from Virginia sources. The filing requirements for a spouse or a dependent are not connected to those of the armed forces member. Examples follow.

If a married couple lives in Virginia the entire year, but is domiciled in Alabama, and has nonmilitary income from Virginia sources that is attributable to both spouses, the spouse on active duty will file Form 763, using Filing Status 4, while the nonmilitary spouse will file Form 760 using Filing Status 3. Generally, the state of domicile will allow credit for tax paid to Virginia on the earned income that is taxed in both states. If the nonmilitary spouse lived in Virginia less than 183 days of the taxable year, the couple will file Form 763 using Filing Status 2.

If the nonmilitary spouse's domicile changed to Virginia during the year, Form 760PY will be filed, using Filing Status 3, to pay tax on income earned after becoming a Virginia resident. Any income received from Virginia sources before becoming a Virginia resident will be reported on Form 763.

Residents

Every Virginia resident whose Virginia adjusted gross income is at or above the minimum filing threshold must file. Any "federal area" such as a military or naval reservation, federal agency or federal administration that is inside the geographical boundaries of Virginia is considered a location in Virginia and non-active duty residents of those areas are subject to Virginia income tax just like residents of any other location in the state.

You may be required to file as a resident in two states if you are an actual resident of one state and a domiciliary resident of another state. (See definitions below.) If you are in this situation, you may be able to take a credit on the return filed in the state of your legal domicile. Refer to the instructions for line 19(e) for information on credit for tax paid to another state.

Domiciliary Residents

Anyone who maintains a legal domicile (residence) in Virginia, whether living in or out of Virginia, is a domiciliary resident. This includes members of the U.S. armed forces who have Virginia as their home of record. Domiciliary residents have their permanent place of residence in Virginia. Any person who has not abandoned his or her legal domicile in Virginia and established legal domicile in another state remains a domiciliary resident of Virginia, even if residing in another jurisdiction for a number of years. In determining domicile, we consider many factors. Some of the more common indicators of domicile are: voter registration; motor vehicle and personal property registration; business pursuits; expressed intent; conduct; leaseholds and sites of real property owned.

Actual Residents

Anyone, other than a member of the U.S. armed forces or the U.S. Congress, who maintains a place of abode (i.e., home) in Virginia for a total of more than 183 days of the taxable year while having legal domicile (residence) in another state or country is an actual resident of Virginia. This category often includes students who are domiciliary residents of another state while attending college in Virginia, or the spouses and dependents of members of the U.S. armed forces stationed in Virginia. Although this residency classification does not apply to members of the U.S. Congress, it does apply to members of their families and staffs.

Part-Year Residents

You may be a part-year resident if your residency in Virginia began or ended during the taxable year. Residents who move into or out of Virginia during the taxable year and do not fall into either category below are generally considered full-year residents.

- Virginia residents who move out of Virginia during the taxable year and become domiciliary residents of another state are part-year residents, provided they do not move back to Virginia for at least six months.
- Those who move into Virginia during the taxable year and become either domiciliary or actual residents of Virginia are also considered part-year residents.

The distinction between full-year and part-year residents is important in deciding which form to file and what income is taxable in Virginia. To compute Virginia Adjusted Gross Income (VAGI) and determine if income meets the minimum filing threshold, part-year residents who file Form 760PY are allowed a subtraction from federal adjusted gross income equal to the amount of income attributable to residence outside Virginia.

As a general rule, part-year residents file Form 760PY. If one spouse is a full-year resident and the other is a part-year resident, the couple may file together on Form 760PY. This form is designed to accommodate these situations. The part-year resident spouse will compute a prorated exemption amount. The full-year resident spouse will claim the full exemption amount.

You should file Form 760, however, if you are a part-year resident and all of your income came from Virginia sources or was received while you were a Virginia resident. This will allow you to claim the full exemption and standard or itemized deduction instead of computing partial amounts as required for part-year residents filing Form 760PY.

If you are a part-year resident who received Virginia source income, as well as other income, during the portion of the year you lived in another state, you need to file two Virginia returns for the taxable year. File Form 760PY to report the income attributable to your period of Virginia residency. File Form 763, the nonresident return, to report the Virginia source income received as a nonresident. See "How to Assemble Your Return" below.

WHEN TO FILE

May 1, 2002

File by May 1, 2002, if you are a calendar year filer. If your taxable year is not January 1 through December 31, you must file by the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal year. If you file after the due date or do not pay the full amount due, you may have to pay penalties and interest. When filing by mail, the envelope must be postmarked by the due date.

If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, you may file your return on the next succeeding day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

Extension Requests

If you know you cannot file your return on time, file Form 760E to request an extension of time to file. The maximum extension you may request is six months from the original due date of your return. You may not substitute a copy of your federal extension for Form 760E. Filing for an extension does not grant you extra time to pay your tax. You must file for the extension and pay the tentative tax due by the original due date (May 1 for calendar year filers). If your income tax return is not filed by the extended due date, the extension will be invalid. In such a case, penalties will be assessed as if the extension request had never been filed. See Form 760E for details. In the following situations, special rules apply.

Refund Returns

You do not need to file Form 760E if you cannot file by the due date and you are certain that your return will result in a refund. This is because the late filing penalty is not assessed on refund returns. To receive a refund, however, you must file within three years of the due date.

Overseas Rule

If you are living or traveling outside the United States or Puerto Rico (including serving in the military or naval service), you must file your return by July 1, 2002. You must attach a statement to your return certifying that you were outside the United States or Puerto Rico on the date the return was due. Also, write "OVERSEAS RULE" across the top margin on the front of your return.

Foreign Income Exclusion

If you expect to qualify for the federal foreign income exclusion and have requested an extension of time for filing your federal return, you may apply for an extension of time to file your state return. You will be granted an extension for thirty days after the date you expect to qualify for the exclusion. You must apply by letter on or before the first day of the seventh month following the close of your taxable year and attach a copy of the approved federal extension to your return when you file.

WHERE TO FILE

To file by mail, use the mailing address listed on the back cover of this booklet for the city or county in which all or the principal part of income from Virginia Sources was derived. Local phone numbers are also provided.

BALANCE DUE RETURNS

You can pay by check or by credit card.

If you are paying by check, make your check payable to the Treasurer of the city or county in which all or the principal part of income from Virginia sources was derived. See the back cover for a listing of localities. Make sure your social security number is on your check and make a notation that it is for your 2001 income tax payment.

When paying by credit card, call 1-800-2PAY-TAX, or to pay over the internet, visit www.officialpayments.com. The jurisdiction code for Virginia is 1080. You will need this number when you arrange for credit card payment.

The company processing the transaction will assess an additional fee. Prior to payment, you will be informed of the fee and will have the option to cancel the transaction at that time with no charge. After you complete the transaction, be sure to check the box on line 27 of Form 763 indicating that you have arranged for this type of payment.

AVOID COMMON MISTAKES

Sign your return.

Make sure your name, address and social security number(s) are correct.

Check all math.

If you itemized deductions, make sure you complete Part IV, lines 44-46 on Form 763.

Put the correct postage on your envelope. If your return is sent back to you because of insufficient postage, you are liable for the penalties and interest if the postmark on the remailed return is after the due date.

File your original return. Do not file a photocopy.

DEBT COLLECTION ACT

Before issuing any refunds, Virginia law requires us to check for any outstanding debt with agencies of the Commonwealth of Virginia, Virginia local governments, the Virginia court system and the Internal Revenue Service. If any such debt is found, regardless of the type of tax return filed, all or part of your refund may be withheld to help satisfy the debt and processing of your return will be delayed.

HOW TO ASSEMBLE YOUR RETURN

If you completed any of the forms shown below, you must attach copies to your Virginia return. Place these forms behind your Virginia return in the following order and staple them together at the location labeled "STAPLE HERE" on the top center margin on the front of your Virginia return.

Virginia forms

- Schedule NPY
- Schedule CR
- Form 760C or Form 760F
- Form 760E
- Forms 301, 304, 305, 306, or 307

If claiming credit for income tax paid to another state on Schedule NPY, attach a complete copy of the state return filed with the other state.

If filing both Form 760PY and Form 763, attach Form 763 behind Form 760PY so that the title of Form 763 can be seen over the top of the title of Form 760PY. Attach a statement over the Form W-2 on Form 760PY stating that "Form 763 is attached behind Form 760PY."

Federal Forms

- Complete copy of your federal income tax return including all schedules.

Withholding forms: Be sure to include W-2 and 1099 forms that indicate the same amount of Virginia income tax withheld as the amount you claim on your return. Staple these to the center of the left margin on front of your return.

Payments: Call 1-800-272-9829 to pay by credit card. If paying by check, enclose check in envelope with your return.

Fiscal year filers: Complete this line only if your taxable year is NOT from January 1 to December 31. You must use the same taxable period on your Virginia return as on your federal return.

FORM 763 LINE INSTRUCTIONS

Name, Address And Social Security Number (SSN)

Name

If you and your spouse have different last names, separate the names with an "and." For example: "John T. Brown and Mary N. Smith." To process your return, we have to abbreviate your name(s) whenever the total number of letters and spaces in the name(s) shown on your return exceeds 34. Due to this limitation, you may want to abbreviate your first name(s) or use your initials if you see that your name(s) will require more than 34 letters and spaces.

Address

Enter your home street address. Please do not enter a P.O. Box unless mail is not delivered to your street address.

Social security number (SSN)

Be sure your social security number is entered correctly. The social security number entered in the "Your social security number" box, must be the number of the person whose name is shown first.

City or county

Enter the name of the city or county in which the principal place of business, employment or income source in Virginia is located, and check the city or county box, as appropriate.

Privacy Act: The Privacy Act of 1974 requires any federal, state or local government agency that requests individuals to disclose their social security numbers to inform those individuals whether the disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what statutory or other authority the number is requested and how it will be used. The following information is provided to comply with these requirements.

Disclosure of the social security number is mandatory pursuant to these instructions, which are promulgated under the authority of Section 58.1-209 of the Code of Virginia. The social security number is used as a means of identification for the filing and retrieval of income tax returns and is also used to verify the identity of individuals for income tax refund purposes.

Filing Status

Check the box beside your filing status

Line 1. Single (Filing Status 1)

Use this filing status if you claimed one of the following federal filing statuses on your federal return: Single, Head of Household, or Qualifying Widow(er). If you claimed the Head of Household filing status on your federal return, check the "Single" filing status box and the "Head of Household" box on line 1.

Line 2. Married, Filing Joint Return (Filing Status 2; both must have Virginia source income)

You and your spouse may choose to file a joint return if both have Virginia Source Income and, (a) you computed your federal income tax liabilities together on a joint federal return, or (b) neither of you was required to file a federal return. When using Filing Status 2 or 3 on Form 763, your spouse's exemption is included in the "Yourself" column. Do not claim your spouse as a dependent.

Line 3. Married, Spouse has no income from any source (Filing Status 3)

Husband and wife may elect to file under this status if:

- federal income tax liabilities are determined on a joint federal return; or
- neither files a federal return; or
- one spouse files a separate return and the other spouse has no gross income and was not a dependent of another taxpayer. (Note that in this case, the standard deduction is limited to $2,500.)

Line 4. Married, Filing Separate Returns (Filing Status 4): A separate return must be filed if one of the following applies:

- both husband and wife are nonresidents and both have income from Virginia sources but do not elect to file jointly;
- both husband and wife are nonresidents and both have income but only one has income from Virginia sources; or
- one is a resident and the other is a nonresident with income from Virginia sources and they do not elect to file a joint resident return.

A spouse may claim only those personal exemptions, itemized deductions and other deductions that could have been claimed had a separate federal return been completed.

Where deductions and personal exemptions cannot be accounted for separately, they must be proportionately allocated between each spouse based on the income attributable to each. For example, if you file a joint federal return, one of you is a nonresident and you are unable to account separately for the child and dependent care deduction, that deduction must be proportionately allocated between each spouse based on the income attributable to each. One spouse may never claim less than a whole personal exemption. Even in the case where a husband and wife have equal income and one child, only one spouse may claim that child.

Exemptions

Enter the number of exemptions allowed in the appropriate boxes next to your filing status. If filing a joint return (Filing Status 2), enter the number for both spouses combined. The first exemption box has been completed for you.

65 or over: To qualify for the additional personal exemption for age 65 or over, you must have been age 65 or over on or before January 1, 2002.

Blind: To qualify for the additional personal exemption for the blind, you must have been considered blind for federal income tax purposes.

Dependents: Generally, you may claim the same number of dependent exemptions allowed on your federal return. If using Filing Status 3 or 4, see the Filing Status instructions in the previous section for the rules on claiming dependents. You may never claim less than a whole exemption. The same dependent may not be claimed on separate returns.

Exemption Amount: Multiply the total number of exemptions by $800. Enter this amount on line 12 also.

Line 5. Check the box if you can be claimed as a dependent on someone else's return and had unearned income. If you check this box, see the line 11 instructions. Your standard deduction may be limited.

Line 6. Adjusted gross income from your federal return. Enter the total amount of your federal adjusted gross income from your federal income tax return.

Caution: Enter your adjusted gross income from your federal return on Form 763, line 6. Do not enter your federal taxable income.

Where husband and wife have filed a joint return for federal income tax purposes and have not elected to file a joint Virginia income tax return, such items allowable for Virginia income tax purposes must be allocated and adjusted as follows:

- Each spouse must claim his or her income. Income must be allocated to the spouse who earned the income and with respect to whose property the income is attributable.
- Allowable adjustments to federal gross income with respect to trade, business, production of income or employment must be allocated to the spouse to whom they relate.

HOW TO ENTER NUMBERS

Round To Whole Dollars: For simplicity, we recommend that you round off cents to the nearest dollar on your return. If you round off, you must do so with all amounts, including income tax withheld and estimated income tax payments. You can drop amounts under 50 cents. Increase amounts from 50 cents to 99 cents to the next dollar. For example, $1.39 is rounded down to $1.00 and $2.50 is rounded up to $3.00.

Negative Numbers: Enter negative numbers (numbers less than 0) in brackets. For example, if your federal adjusted gross income was negative 12,000.00, enter this as [12,000.00].

Line 7. Additions to federal adjusted gross income. Complete Part I, lines 29 through 31 on the back of Form 763, and enter the amount from line 31.

Line 8. Total: Add lines 6 and 7 and enter the total.

Line 9. Subtractions from federal adjusted gross income. Complete Part II on back of Form 763, lines 32 through 42, and enter the amount from line 42.

Line 10. Virginia adjusted gross income. Subtract line 9 from line 8 and enter the result.

You are not required to file an individual income tax return if:

- you are single (Filing Status 1) and line 10 is less than $5,000;
- you are married, filing a joint return (Filing Status 2) and line 10 is less than $8,000; or
- you are married and your spouse has no income from any source (Filing Status 3) or you are married filing a separate return from your spouse (Filing Status 4) and line 10 is less than $4,000.

The filing threshold amount for a dependent (regardless of age) is the same as for any other individual (even if the dependent's standard deduction would be limited on line 11).

If you are not required to file a return but had income tax withheld or made estimated income tax payments, take the following steps to claim your full refund:

- skip to line 18 and enter "0.00" as your tax (because your income is below the filing threshold).
- complete lines 19(a) through (g), line 20 and lines 22 through 28. You are entitled to a full refund.

If you are required to file a return, continue to line 11.

Line 11. Deductions. Enter either your standard deduction amount from Part III or the amount of itemized deductions from Part IV. The standard deduction must be claimed unless itemized deductions are claimed on your federal income tax return.

NOTE: If you could be claimed as a dependent on the federal income tax return of another taxpayer and had any unearned income during the year, your standard deduction may be limited. See "Dependent's Limited Standard Deduction" in the instructions for line 43 for more information.

Line 12. Exemptions. Enter the total exemption amount computed on line 1, 2, 3 or 4 from the exemption section of the return. The total exemption amount is the number of exemptions claimed multiplied by $800.

Line 13. Virginia Child And Dependent Care Expenses Deduction. Enter the amount on which the federal credit for child and dependent care expenses is based. (This is the amount on Federal Form 2441 or Schedule 2 of Form 1040A that is multiplied by the decimal amount.) Do not enter the federal credit amount.

You may claim the deduction for child and dependent care expenses on your Virginia return only if you were eligible to claim a credit for child and dependent care expenses on your federal return. If you filed a joint federal return and you file a separate Virginia return, you may allocate this amount as mutually agreed.

The amount of employment-related expenses that may be subtracted is limited to the amount actually used in computing the federal credit for child and dependent care expenses. As a general rule, you are limited to a maximum of $2,400 for one child and $4,800 if you are claiming the expenses for two or more dependents, or the earned income of the spouse having the lowest income, whichever is less.

Line 14. Total deductions. Add lines 11, 12, and 13 and enter the total.

Line 15. Taxable income computed as a resident. Subtract line 14 from line 10 and enter the result.

Line 16. Complete Part V on back of Form 763, lines 47 through 61, and enter the percentage from line 61. Enter 100% if all of your income is from Virginia sources.

NOTE: Compute the percentage amount to one decimal place (example: 5.4%) not to exceed 100% or an amount less than 0. If the percentage amount is not entered as one decimal place, the processing of your return may be delayed.

Line 17. Nonresident taxable income. Multiply the amount shown on line 15 by the percentage shown on line 16 and enter the result.

Line 18. Income tax. Enter the tax from the tax table included in these instructions. If line 17 exceeds the maximum amount listed in the tax table, compute the tax using the tax rate schedule.

Payments And Tax Credits

Line 19. Line 19(a). Virginia Income Tax Withheld. Enter the amount shown as Virginia income tax withheld on your Forms W-2, W-2G or 1099-R. Each form must show Virginia as the state where the income tax was withheld. Staple the forms to your return in the location indicated in the left margin.

WITHHOLDING FORMS

To receive credit for withholding, you must attach withholding statements (Forms W-2 and 1099) to your return. Make sure these withholding forms are easy to read and indicate the same amount(s) of withholding as you claim. Also, these statements must show the correct social security numbers and that the withholding was paid to Virginia. Staple these forms to the middle of the left margin on front of your Form 763. If you need a corrected Form W-2 or 1099, you must contact the issuer of that form.

Line 19(b). Estimated Income Tax Payments. Enter the amount of 2001 Virginia estimated income tax payments. Also include any amounts credited to 2001 Virginia estimated income tax from the overpayment on your 2000 Virginia individual income tax return.

Line 19(c). Extension Payments. Enter the total tentative tax payment made with Form 760E. Attach a copy of the Form 760E filed.

Line 19(d). Tax Credit for Low-Income Families. If your total family income is below the federal poverty guidelines, you may be eligible to claim this credit for low income individuals. The credit may not be claimed if you, your spouse, or any dependent claims any of the following:

- Virginia National Guard Subtraction
- Military pay subtraction (first $15,000)
- Subtraction for first $15,000 for state and federal employees whose annual salary is $15,000 or less
- Exemption for blind taxpayers or taxpayers age 65 and over
- the Age Deduction

The credit is based on total annual family income, including the income of a spouse who does not live with you, and the income of all dependents claimed on your return and your spouse's return. To compute total annual family income you must compute the "Guideline Income" for each family member and add those amounts together. Guideline Income is defined as federal adjusted gross income modified by the Virginia additions and qualifying Virginia subtractions that apply to full year residents. A worksheet for computing Guideline Income is included below. Follow the line-by-line instructions for completing Schedule NPY as well as the instructions for computing Guideline Income to determine your allowable credit amount. If you and your spouse file separate returns, only one spouse may claim the credit.

Line Instructions for Schedule NPY, Part II

Lines 1-6 Exemption Information Enter name, social security number and Guideline Income. Include the same information for your spouse and dependents.

Line 7 Enter Total Family Guideline Income. To compute your family income, complete the Guideline Income Worksheet for each family member (each exemption reported on lines 1-6),

Line 8 Enter Total Number of Exemptions listed in Lines 1-6 and on any attached schedule. Using the number on line 8 above as Eligible Exemptions, compare the dollar amount on line 7 above to the Poverty Guideline below. If the line 7 amount is greater than the Guideline, you do not qualify for the credit. If the line 7 amount is less than or equal to the Guideline for the number of exemptions on line 8, complete lines 9, 10 and 11, Part II, Schedule NPY.

The guideline varies with the size of the family.
Eligible Exemptions	Poverty Guideline	Eligible Exemptions	Poverty Guideline
1	$ 8,590	4	$17,650
2	$11,610	5	$20,670
3	$14,630	6*	$23,690

*For each additional exemption add $3,020.

Line 9 Exemptions If qualified to claim this credit, enter the number of exemptions reported on both line 8 and Form 763.

Line 10 Multiply the number of exemptions reported on line 9 by $300.

Line 11 Credit. Enter on line 19d, Form 763, the lesser of the amounts reported on line 10 above or on line 18, Form 763. This is your credit amount.

Guideline Income Worksheet (photocopy as needed)
Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____ - _____ - _____
The income, additions and subtractions entered on the worksheet must be shown for the entire taxable year.
1. Federal adjusted gross income from the federal return.	1. $
2. Interest earned on obligations of other states exempt from federal tax.	2. $
3. Other additions to federal adjusted gross income.	3. $
4. Subtotal. Add Lines 1, 2, and 3.	4. $
5. State income tax refund or overpayment credit reported on your federal return.	5. $
6. Income (interest, dividends or gains) on U.S. obligations or securities exempt from state income tax, but not from federal tax.	6. $
7. Social Security or equivalent Tier 1 Railroad Retirement Act benefits reported as taxable income on your federal return.	7. $
8. Disability income reported as wages (or payments in lieu of wages) on your federal return.	8. $
9. Unemployment benefits included in Federal adjusted gross income.	9. $
10. Other subtractions from federal adjusted gross income.	10. $
11. Add Lines 5 through 10.	11. $
12. Guideline Income. Subtract Line 11 from Line 4. Enter here and on Lines 1-7 of Part II, Schedule NPY for each person.	12. $

Example: Taxpayer is married, filing separately, with 2 dependents. The taxpayer's Guideline Income is their VAGI - $8,150. The spouse lives in Ohio, has a Federal Adjusted Gross Income (FAGI) of $22,500, no Virginia income and 1 child. The dependents have no income. To compute spouse's Guideline Income combine spouse's FAGI with allowable Virginia additions and subtractions. Total Guideline Income exceeds the Poverty Guideline for 5 exemptions and the taxpayer is not eligible for the Credit.

Taxpayer's VAGI	$ 8,150
Plus spouse's FAGI adjusted for Virginia additions & subtractions	$22,500
Results in Guideline Income of	$30,650

Line 19(e). Credit for Tax Paid To Another State. Generally, Virginia will not allow taxpayers filing nonresident individual income tax returns to claim credit for income tax paid to another state for earned or business income derived from sources within Virginia or on any gain on the sale of a principal residence within Virginia (to the extent that the gain is included in federal adjusted gross income). The only exception to the above rule involves income taxes paid to the following states:

- Arizona
- District of Columbia
- California
- Oregon

If you are a resident of one of the above states and have Virginia Source income as a "nonresident," you should report such income to Virginia and claim the credit for tax paid to another state. This credit may be claimed on Schedule NPY, Part III, for taxes paid to any of the above states on earned or business income derived from sources within Virginia or from any gain on the sale of a principal residence within Virginia (to the extent that the gain is included in federal adjusted gross income), provided the income is taxed by Virginia as well as the other state. Schedule NPY is available from the Virginia office of any Commissioner of the Revenue, Director of Finance, or Director of Tax Administration or from the Virginia Department of Taxation.

With the exception of the Foreign Source Retirement Income Tax Credit that is available for Virginia residents only, Virginia does not allow the credit for tax paid to another state for income tax paid to any city or county, the federal government, or foreign government. No credit is allowable for franchise tax, license tax, excise tax, unincorporated business tax, occupation tax or any tax characterized as such even though it is based on earned or business income or if the other state's legislation does not allow an income tax or commuter tax.

Exceptions For Certain Nonresidents

If you are a nonresident of Virginia who commutes daily to work in Virginia from Kentucky or the District of Columbia, you do not have to file if:

- You have no actual place of abode in Virginia at any time during the year;
- Salaries and wages are your only Virginia source income; and
- Your salaries and wages are subject to income taxation by Kentucky or the District of Columbia.

If you are a nonresident of Virginia who is a resident of Maryland, Pennsylvania or West Virginia and you earn salaries and wages in Virginia, you are exempt from filing a Virginia income tax return and paying Virginia income tax if:

- Your only income from sources in Virginia is from salaries and wages; and
- Your salaries and wages are subject to income taxation by Maryland, Pennsylvania or West Virginia.

If you are a domiciliary resident of Kentucky, Maryland, Pennsylvania, West Virginia or the District of Columbia and have income from Virginia sources other than wages and salaries, (such as business income or gain from the sale of a residence), you must file a Virginia Nonresident Individual Income Tax Return, Form 763, and pay tax on income not specifically exempted above.

You must complete Schedule NPY to claim this credit and attach a complete copy of the state tax return filed in the state for which you claim the credit. Copies of Forms W-2 or 1099 are not sufficient to verify payment of the tax to the other state.

Trust Beneficiary Accumulation Distribution Credit. If claiming this credit (Section 58.1-370, Code of Virginia), include this credit on Part III, line 8, Schedule NPY. Write "Trust Beneficiary Accumulation Distribution Credit" and the credit amount below the entry box. If the trust beneficiary accumulation distribution credit is the only credit claimed, you may, instead of completing Schedule NPY, enter the credit amount on line 19(e) of Form 763 and write "Trust Beneficiary Accumulation Distribution Credit" to the left of line 19(e).

A schedule showing the credit computation must be attached to your return.

Schedule NPY, Part III, Credit for Tax Paid to Another State

NPY Part III, LINE 1, QUALIFYING TAXABLE INCOME RE-PORTED TO THE OTHER STATE

Read the qualifying income section and the specific instructions for residents and nonresidents below to ensure that you enter the correct amount on this line, then enter the taxable income on which the tax in the other state is based.

Qualifying Income

To be qualified, the income on this line must be included as taxable income on both the Virginia return and the other state's return. Enter the total taxable income from all of the following that apply to you to the extent that this income was taxed by the other state:

- Earned or business income derived from sources outside Virginia, which is subject to tax by Virginia as well as another state;
- Gain from the sale of a principal residence outside Virginia which was included in federal adjusted gross income;
- Gain from the sale of any capital asset not used in a trade or business.
- Corporation income tax paid to another state (one that does not recognize the federal S corporation election), by an individual shareholder of an S corporation. Attach a statement from the S corporation.

In some states, the tax is computed on total taxable income (from all sources) and then reduced by an allocation percentage. In these cases, you must multiply the total taxable income shown on the other state's return by the allocation percentage in order to determine the amount of income to enter on this line.

If the income is from Arizona, District of Columbia, California, or Oregon, claim the credit on the non-resident income tax return of that state instead of on the Virginia return.

Shareholders

If you are a Virginia resident who is a shareholder in an S corporation that paid income tax to a state which imposes an income tax on the S corporation and the fiscal year of the S corporation ended while you were a Virginia resident, enter on Part III, line 1 your share of the income subject to tax, as shown on the corporation income tax return filed with the other state.

NPY Part III, LINE 4, VIRGINIA INCOME TAX

Enter the amount from Form 763, line 18.

NPY Part III, LINE 5, INCOME PERCENTAGE

Divide line 2 by line 1. Compute the income percentage to one decimal place. (For example, .3163 becomes 31.6%. If the result is greater than 100%, enter 1.0. If the income from the other state is from Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina or West Virginia, see "Special computation involving states bordering Virginia" below to determine what to enter on line 5.

Special computation involving states bordering Virginia: You qualify for a special computation of the out-of-state tax credit for income tax paid to a state which borders Virginia if:

1. You are required to file an individual income tax return with Virginia and only one other state.
2. The other state for which you are claiming a credit is one of the following states which borders Virginia: Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina or West Virginia.

3. Your only income from the border state was earned income on wages and salaries (generally wages and salaries for which you received Forms W-2 or 1099, etc.) or business income reported on federal Schedule C.
4. Your Virginia taxable income is equal to or more than the taxable income on the tax return filed with the other state.

If you meet all four qualifications, enter 100% on line 5 and write "BORDERS VA" in the margin beside the entry.

NPY Part III, LINE 6. Multiply line 3 by line 5.

NPY Part III, LINE 7, CREDIT. Enter the lesser of line 4 or line 6.

Line 19(f). Credits From Schedule CR. You must complete Schedule CR and attach it to your return to claim the following tax credits. To qualify for some credits, other Virginia forms must be attached. To order Schedule CR, Schedule CR Instructions and these other credit forms, see page 1.

 For details on these credits and information on carryover and pass-through provisions, refer to Schedule CR, Schedule CR instructions and the organizations or forms specified.

The following table lists all the credits that can be claimed against individual income tax reported on Virginia Schedule CR. For more information, call TeleTax at 804-367-2486 or the toll free number outside of Richmond 1-888-268-2829. Or visit our web site at www.tax.state.va.us.

Line 20. Total payments and credits. Add lines 19(a) through 19(f) and enter the total on line 20.

Line 21. Income tax you owe. If line 18 is larger than line 20, enter the difference and skip to line 23.

Line 22. Overpayment amount. If line 20 is larger than line 18, enter the difference.

Line 23. Addition to tax, penalty and/or interest. If you owe the addition to tax, penalty and/or interest and you do not complete Part IV, Schedule NPY, you will receive a bill for the appropriate amount at a later date. Enter on line 23, Form 763, the amount computed on line 4, Part IV, Schedule NPY. Instructions follow.

Schedule NPY, Part IV, Addition To Tax, Penalty And Interest Computations

You can leave this Part blank. The department will compute the addition to tax, penalty and interest for you and send you a bill. However, if your income varied during the year you may be entitled to a lower addition to tax than what the department would automatically compute. In such cases, complete Form 760C to show when the income was received and what the addition to tax should be.

NPY Part IV, Line 1, Addition To Tax

Enter the amount of the addition to tax computed on Form 760C (for individuals, estates and trusts) or Form 760F (for farmers, fishermen or merchant seamen). If you underpaid your estimated income tax or had insufficient income tax withheld for the taxable year, you may owe the "addition to tax" computed on Form 760C or Form 760F. The addition to tax does not apply if each payment is made on time and:

1. the total tax paid (including tax withheld and timely estimated tax payments) was at least 90% (66 2/3 % for farmers, fishermen or merchant seamen) of the 2001 Virginia income tax liability after nonrefundable credits or 100% of the 2000 income tax liability after nonrefundable credits;
2. the sum of all installment underpayments for the year is $150 or less; or
3. you qualify for one of the exceptions shown on Form 760C (Form 760F for farmers, fishermen or merchant seamen).

You may owe an addition to tax even if you are due a refund. In this case, your refund will be reduced by the addition to tax amount. See "Addition To Tax For Underpayment of Tax" in the General Information section for more information. If completed, attach Form 760C or Form 760F to your return.

NPY Part IV, Line 2, Late payment or late filing penalty:

Enter the penalty computed on the worksheet below if the late filing penalty applies and check the appropriate box on your return. You owe a late payment or late filing penalty if your return shows a balance due on line 21 and your return is filed after the due date (or qualifying extension of time to file requested on Form 760E) or the balance due is not paid by the due date. Complete the worksheet below and enter the amount computed on Line 2, Part IV, Schedule NPY.

The penalty is 6% per month or part of a month the return or payment is late, up to a maximum of 30% of the tax.

To compute the late filing and payment penalties:

- (a) Enter amount from line 21, Form 763 (a) _____
- (b) Enter number of months that the return or payment is late (include any part of a month as a full month) (b) _____
- (c) Multiply line (b) by 6% (.06) and enter the result, up to 30% (.30) (c) _____
- (d) Multiply line (a) by line (c). Enter here and on Line 2, Part IV, Schedule NPY (d) _____

Any month that the late filing penalty applies, the late payment penalty does not. For example, if you file your return 2 months late, but do not pay the balance due at that time, 2 months late filing penalty will be due. The late payment penalty would be assessed beginning on the date filed. The late payment penalty will accrue until the cumulative penalty reaches 30% (late payment and late filing penalties will not be assessed at the same time). The maximum cumulative penalty (late filing plus late payment) cannot exceed 30% of the tax. NOTE: You do not owe a penalty for late filing or late payment if you file your return, with full payment, on or before the approved extended date for filing Form 763.

Extension penalty: In addition to the penalty above, enter the extension penalty if you underpaid the tentative tax AND you filed Form 763 ON OR BEFORE the approved extended due date. You underpaid the tentative tax if the amount paid with Form 760E is less than 90% of the amount on Form 763, line 18. See Form 760E for instructions.

NPY Part IV, Line 3, Interest

Enter the interest computed on the worksheet below if your return is filed after the due date and your return shows a balance due on line 21.

To compute interest:

- (a) Enter amount from line 21, Form 763 (a) _____
- (b) Enter interest rate factor* for the date the return is filed or payment is made (b) _____
- (c) Multiply line (a) by line (b). Enter here and on line 3, Part IV, Schedule NPY (c) _____

*To obtain the interest rate factor for this line, contact the Commissioner of the Revenue, Director of Finance or Director of Tax Administration for your city or county (see address and phone number list on back of this book) or the Department of Taxation at 804-367-8031. Compute interest through the date payment is made or postmarked.

Line 24. Credit to 2002 estimated income tax: Enter the amount of the net overpayment amount on line 22 to be credited to 2002 estimated tax.

Line 25. Contributions From Schedule NPY, Part V

Complete Part V, Schedule NPY, if you would like to contribute to any of the organizations specified below. The total amount(s) you designate on lines (a)-(n) may not exceed your net tax overpayment (line 22 minus the total of line 23 and line 24). You may contribute to the other organizations regardless of whether you have an overpayment or a tax due. Payment and contribution options are described below. See Part V, Schedule NPY, and the last section of this book for details.

(t) Consumer's Use Tax. Do not file Form CU-7 if you enter your consumer's use tax amount in Part V, Schedule NPY.

Line 26. Add lines 23, 24 and 25; enter the total here.

Line 27. Amount You Owe

IF YOU OWE TAX on line 21, add line 21 and line 26.

—OR—

If line 22 is an OVERPAYMENT and line 26 is LARGER THAN line 22, subtract line 22 from line 26.

The amount you owe must be paid in full at the time of filing your return. No payment is required if the amount you owe is less than $1. If paying by check, make your check payable to the TREASURER of the city or county where you file. Enter your social security number above your signature, make a notation that the check is for "2001 Virginia Income Tax" and include your daytime telephone number. Enclose your check in your envelope. Do not staple your check to your return. Or, call 1-800-272-9829(1-800-2PAY-TAX) or visit www.officialpayments.com to pay by credit card. If you choose this option, check the box indicating this type of payment. You will be assessed a fee by the company processing the transaction.

Line 28. Amount To Be Refunded To You

If line 22 is larger than line 26, subtract line 26 from line 22 and enter the amount to be refunded. Overpayments of less than $1 will be refunded only upon written request. If you are due a refund and do not complete line 28, your refund may be delayed.

Sign your return: The signature block on Form 763 is on the bottom of page 2. You have not filed a complete or legal return unless you sign it. A joint return must be signed by both you and your spouse.

Telephone numbers: The telephone number blocks on Form 763 are to the right of the signature lines on the back of the form. Phone numbers are requested so we can call you if we have a question about your return.

Farmers, fishermen or merchant seamen: Check the box in the signature section of the return if you are a self-employed farmer, fisherman or merchant seamen and at least two-thirds of your gross income is from those employments. This information is used to identify farmers, fishermen or merchant seamen subject to special rules for paying estimated tax. See "Addition To Tax For Underpayment Of Tax" in the "General Information" section for details.

Additions

MUTUAL FUNDS

If you received federally tax exempt interest dividends from a regulated investment company (mutual fund) that invested in obligations both taxable and exempt for Virginia purposes, the entire dividend income must be entered as an addition unless you attach a statement provided by the fund that:

- details the amount of dividends you earned; and
- summarizes the prorations between exempt and taxable dividends (monthly breakdown is preferred).

A typical situation would involve a mutual fund that invests in bonds of several states, including Virginia. The interest on the bonds issued by the other states is taxable for Virginia purposes, even though exempt for federal purposes. Unless the taxpayer is able to substantiate the amount attributable to the Virginia bonds, the total amount of dividends exempt from federal taxation will be an addition on the Virginia return.

Line 29 Interest On Obligations Of Other States

Enter the interest not included in federal adjusted gross income, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal taxable income, on obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such state unless created by compact or agreement to which this state is a party.

Line 30. Other Additions

A. Interest on federally tax-exempt U.S. obligations.

Enter the interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from state income tax.

B. Transitional modifications. Enter the amount necessary to prevent the deduction of any item properly deductible in determining a tax under prior state law.

C. Accumulation distribution income. Enter the taxable income used to compute the partial tax on an accumulation distribution pursuant to Section 667 of the Internal Revenue Code. Attach federal Form 4970. On the 2000 Form 4970, the amount on line 7 was the taxable amount of the accumulation distribution to be claimed as an addition on this line. The 2001 Form 4970 was not available when these instructions were prepared.

D. Lump-sum distribution income. If you received a lump-sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan and elected to use either the five-year or ten-year averaging method under Section 402 of the Internal Revenue Code for taxing the distribution, a portion of the income excluded from federal adjusted gross income, by virtue of that election, may be required to be included as an addition on your Virginia return. Attach federal Form 4972. Complete the worksheet below to determine what portion, if any, must be included as an addition on the Virginia return.

1. Enter the total amount of the distribution subject to federal tax (ordinary income and capital gain) 1. _____
2. Enter the total federal minimum distribution allowance, federal death benefit exclusion and federal estate tax exclusion 2. _____
3. Subtract line 2 from line 1. Include this amount on Form 763, line 30 3. _____

E. Other. Attach an explanation for other additions.

Subtractions

MUTUAL FUNDS

If you received income from a regulated investment company (mutual fund) that invested in obligations both taxable and exempt for Virginia purposes, the entire income must be considered taxable by Virginia unless you attach a statement provided by the fund that:

- details the amount of income you earned; and
- summarizes the prorations between exempt and taxable income (monthly breakdown is preferred).

If you provide this information, enter the exempt portion of income on line 34 or line 41 as appropriate.

Line 32. Age Deduction

NOTE: Eligible taxpayers may claim EITHER this age deduction OR the disability income subtraction on line 36. Use the one that benefits you the most.

Each person age 62 or over on January 1, 2002, may claim an age deduction. The deduction is $6,000 for those who were 62, 63 or 64 and $12,000 for individuals 65 or over on January 1, 2002.

Line 32(a) Date of birth

Each spouse computing this deduction must enter the date of birth in MM-DD-YY (month-day-year) format. For example, March 4, 1930, would be entered as 03-04-30. Use Column B for the person whose social security number is listed first on the front of the return in the: "Your social security number" box. Use Column A for the other spouse. If this line is blank, the deduction may be disallowed and processing will be delayed.

Line 32(b) Deduction Amount

In the appropriate column for each spouse:

- if age 62, 63 or 64 on January 1, 2002, enter $6,000
- if age 65 or over on January 1, 2002, enter $12,000

Line 32(c) Age Deduction.

Add the deduction amounts on line 32(b) and enter the total.

Line 33. State Tax Refund Or Overpayment Credit Reported As Income On Your Federal Return

Enter the amount of any state income tax refund or overpayment credit reported as income on your federal income tax return.

State, local or foreign income taxes withheld from your salary, estimated tax payments or payments made on tax for a prior year to such taxing authority may be deducted on your federal return for the year withheld or paid. The federal deduction is for the amount paid rather than the tax liability, so a refund or credit is generally treated as taxable income (a recovery of an excessive deduction) on the federal return. Since Virginia does not allow the state and local income tax deduction, a federally taxable refund or overpayment credit is to be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income on the Virginia return.

Line 34. Income From U.S. Obligations

This includes, but is not limited to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills and treasury notes. It does not include interest on refunds of federal taxes, equipment purchase contracts or normal business transactions.

The following is a partial list of taxable and exempt income. This list is based on the department's analysis of federal and state law as applicable to selected organizations. Line 35. Title II Social Security And Tier 1 Railroad Retirement Act Benefits

This is the amount reported as taxable social security benefits on your federal return.

Line 36. Disability Income

NOTE: Eligible taxpayers may claim EITHER this disability income subtraction OR the age deduction on line 32. Use the one that benefits you the most.

Enter the amount of disability income reported as wages (or payments in lieu of wages) on your federal return. Individuals, regardless of their age, can subtract up to $20,000 of disability income as defined under Internal Revenue Code Section 22.

Line 37. Unemployment Benefits

Enter any taxable unemployment compensation benefits reported as income on your federal income tax return.

Line 38. Long-Term Health Care Insurance

Enter the amount paid during the year for premiums for long term health care insurance, provided that you did not claim a deduction for federal income tax purposes.

Line 39. Military Basic Pay

Each spouse who qualifies as military service personnel on extended active duty for periods in excess of 90 days, may be eligible to subtract all or a portion of their military basic pay received during those periods. If the active duty pay received was less than $15,000, you may subtract the entire amount. If the active duty pay was greater than $15,000 the subtraction must be reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount which the pay exceeds $15,000. No subtraction is allowed for active duty pay of $30,000 or more.

Line 40. Federal/State Employee Low-Income Pay

Each qualifying spouse may claim a subtraction for the first $15,000 of salary for federal and state employees whose annual salary is $15,000 or less.

Line 41. Other Subtractions

A. Income from Virginia obligations. Enter the amount of income from obligations or sales and exchanges of obligations of this state or any political subdivision or instrumentality of this state to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income.

B. Federal work opportunity tax credit wages. Enter the amount of wages or salaries eligible for the federal work opportunity tax credit not deducted for federal income tax purposes.

C. Tier 2 and other Railroad Retirement and Railroad Unemployment benefits. Enter the amount of Tier 2 vested dual benefit and other Railroad Retirement Act benefits and Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act benefits included in adjusted gross income and reported on your federal return as a taxable pension or annuity.

If any part of your Tier 2 Railroad Retirement Act benefits paid by the Railroad Retirement Board is properly treated as a fully taxable pension on your federal income tax return, subtract that amount on this line. Do not include any amount of Tier 1 Railroad Retirement Board retirement benefits that were included in your gross income as the taxable portion of your social security and railroad retirement benefits on your federal return because that portion should be subtracted on line 35.

This subtraction does not apply to supplemental annuities received by retired employees of railroads under a company pension plan set up by a particular railroad, whether the plan was contributory or noncontributory.

D. Charitable mileage. An individual who claims a charitable mileage deduction on the federal return (Schedule A) may claim the difference between 18 cents per mile and the charitable mileage deduction per mile allowed on the federal Schedule A. If actual mileage expenses are used and are less than 18 cents per mile, the Virginia additional deduction is the difference between the actual expenses allowed on federal Schedule A and 18 cents per mile. Attach a schedule of computation.

E. Virginia Lottery prizes. Enter the amount of each prize less than $600 awarded to you by the Virginia Lottery Department to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income.

F. Foster care subtraction. Foster parents may claim a subtraction of $1,000 for each child residing in their home under permanent foster care as defined in Title 63.1 of the Code of Virginia, provided they claim the foster child as a dependent on their federal and Virginia income tax returns. Under Internal Revenue Service Ruling 77-280, a foster child may not be claimed as a dependent if the foster parent receives any public or private financial support for the care of the child. If you claim this subtraction, you must attach a statement certifying:

1. the foster child resided in your home for the entire taxable year under permanent foster care placement;
2. the foster child qualified and was claimed as a dependent on your federal and Virginia income tax returns;
3. the name of each foster child claimed for this subtraction; and
4. you have not received any public or private financial support for the care of this child.

G. Foreign source income. Enter any amount included in federal adjusted gross income that is foreign source income and defined as follows:

1. interest other than interest derived from sources within the United States;
2. dividends other than dividends derived from sources within the United States;

3. rents, royalties, license and technical fees from property located or services performed without the United States or from any interest in such property, including rents, royalties, or fees for the use or the privilege of using without the United States any patents, copyrights, secret processes and formulas, goodwill, trademarks, trade brands, franchises, and other like properties;
4. gains, profits or other income from the sale of intangible or real property located without the United States; and
5. the amount of an individual's share of net income attributable to a foreign source qualified business unit of an electing small business corporation.

In determining the source of income for purposes of sections G.1-G.4 above, the provisions of Section(s) 861, 862, and 863 of the Internal Revenue Code will apply. The term "technical fees" does not include wages, salaries, compensation or other "earned income" as defined in Section 911(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (Section 58.1-322C7 of the Code of Virginia). For purposes of section G.5 above, qualified business unit is defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 989 and the source of the income is in accordance with Sections 861, 862, and 987 of the Internal Revenue Code.

H. Agricultural product donations. Enter the wholesale market price, not otherwise deducted from federal adjusted gross income, of edible agricultural products donated to a nonprofit or charitable organization exempted from taxation by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. A schedule showing your computation and the signed statement from the recipient referred to below must be attached to your return.

In order to claim this subtraction: (a) the product must be fit for human consumption; (b) the use of the product by the donee must be related to the purpose or function constituting the basis for the exemption of the donee under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; (c) the contribution must not be made in exchange for money, property or service; and (d) the individual must receive from the donee a written statement certifying that the use and disposition of such agricultural product will be in accordance with (a) through (c) above. The amount of the contribution will equal the wholesale market value of the agricultural products contributed.

"Agricultural product" means any crop and "wholesale market price" means the lowest wholesale market price of any agricultural product in the nearest regional market during the month in which the contribution is made without consideration of grade or quality of such product, as if the quantity of such product contributed were marketable.

I. Virginia National Guard income. Enter, to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, the wages or salaries received for active and inactive service in the rank of O3 and below in the Virginia National Guard not to exceed the amount of income derived from up to 39 days of such service or $3,000, whichever amount is less. This subtraction does not apply to members of: 1) the active or reserve components of the Army, Navy, Air Force or Marines; or 2) the National Guard of other states or the District of Columbia.

To claim this subtraction, you must attach the following to your return:

1. Statement reflecting the number of days of wages or salary reported for this subtraction;
 2. Documentation indicating your rank in the Virginia National Guard; and
 3. A copy of the wage statement from the Virginia National Guard.
- J. Operation Joint Endeavor combat pay. Enter the amount of combat pay for service in support of Operation Joint Endeavor included in federal adjusted gross income. Virginia law grants a total Virginia income tax exclusion of combat pay received for service in support of Operation Joint Endeavor. Under federal law, enlisted personnel receive a total federal exclusion, but officers may be subject to a limited federal exclusion. Since the Virginia income tax computation is based on federal adjusted gross income, any amount of combat pay excluded on the federal return, carries through as an exclusion on the Virginia return. For this reason, only officers who have a limited federal exclusion are eligible for this Virginia subtraction. The subtraction is equal to the portion of combat pay subject to federal taxation.
- K. Military pay and allowances attributable to active duty service in a combat zone or a qualified hazardous duty area. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income and not otherwise subtracted, deducted or exempted, enter any military pay and allowances earned while serving by order of the President of the United States with the consent of Congress in a combat zone or qualified hazardous duty area treated as a combat zone for federal tax purposes pursuant to §112 of the Internal Revenue Code.
- L. Retirement plan income previously taxed by another state. Enter the amount of retirement income received during the taxable year on which the contributions were taxed in another state but were deductible from the federal adjusted gross income during the same period. The total amount of this Virginia subtraction cannot exceed the amount of contributions previously taxed by another state. This subtraction applies to retirement income from qualified pension, profit sharing, or stock bonus plans as described by Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 401, individual retirement accounts or annuities established under IRC Section 408, deferred compensation plans as defined by IRC Section 457, or any federal government retirement program as long as you paid tax to another state on contributions to the plan, usually in previous years.
- M. Bone marrow donor screening fee. Enter the amount of the fee paid for an initial screening to become a possible bone marrow donor, if you were not reimbursed for the fee or did not claim a deduction for the payment of the fee on your federal income tax return.
- N. Virginia College Savings Plan. Enter the amount paid during the 2001 taxable year (and during a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1996, but before January 1, 1998) for a prepaid tuition contract or a savings trust account entered into with the Virginia College Savings Plan. Also, for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1999, contributions made during the taxable year for a savings trust account with the Virginia Higher Education Tuition Trust Fund may be entered as a subtraction on the Virginia return. The maximum subtraction per contract or savings trust account in any taxable year is $2,000 and any unused balance can be carried forward until the purchase price is fully deducted. A purchaser of a prepaid tuition contract or a savings trust account who has attained age 70, however, is not subject to the $2,000 limitation in any taxable year. Such taxpayer is allowed a subtraction for the full amount paid for the contract, less any amounts previously deducted. If a contract was purchased by such taxpayer during taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, but before January 1, 1998, such taxpayer may file an amended return for taxable year 1998 and claim a deduction for the full amount paid during these taxable years, less any amounts previously deducted that are related to such payments.
- Do not include any amount that was deducted on your federal income tax return for such payments or contributions. If a distribution or refund is received in the future for a reason other than to pay qualified higher education expenses, or the beneficiary's death, disability, or receipt of a scholarship, any deduction taken for the contract purchase or contribution is subject to recapture (must be included as an addition in the future year).
- O. Virginia College Savings Plan Income Distribution or Refund. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, enter the amount of any income attributable to a distribution of benefits or a refund from a prepaid tuition contract with the Virginia College Savings Plan. The subtraction is limited to the amount of income attributable to a refund in the event of a beneficiary's death, disability, or receipt of scholarship.
- P. Continuing Teacher Education Tuition. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1999, an individual employed as a licensed primary or secondary school teacher may enter a subtraction on the Virginia income tax return for an amount equal to twenty percent of the tuition costs incurred to attend continuing teacher education courses that are required as a condition of employment; however, this subtraction is available only if (1) the individual was not reimbursed for these tuition costs and (2) the individual has not claimed a deduction for these tuition costs on the federal income tax return.
- Q. Income Received by Holocaust Victims Subtract any income from the return or replacement of assets stolen as a result of:
- Nazi persecution
 - individual being forced into labor against his or her will
 - transactions with or actions of the Nazi regime
 - treatment of refugees fleeing Nazi persecution
 - holding of such assets by entities or persons in the Swiss confederation
- R. Tobacco Settlement Fund Income. If you received income from the tobacco "Master Settlement Agreement" you may be eligible to claim a subtraction for the amount received. The income must have been received by (i) tobacco farmers; (ii) persons holding a tobacco marketing quota, or tobacco farm acreage allotment; or (iii) persons with the right to grow tobacco pursuant to a quota or allotment as a result of (a) the tobacco Master Settlement Agreement, (b) the National Tobacco Grower Settlement Trust, and (c) the Tobacco Loss Assistance Program.
- S. Gain on the Sale of Land for Open Space Use. Provides a subtraction for any organization which dedicates the land for open-space use.

- W. Other. Attach a schedule of explanation for other subtractions.

Deductions

Standard Or Itemized Deductions:

You must claim the same type of deductions (standard or itemized) on the Virginia return as claimed on your federal return.

STANDARD DEDUCTION

Line 43

Enter the applicable standard deduction amount shown below on Form 763, line 43.

Filing Status	Standard Deduction
1. Single	$3,000
2. Married, filing joint return	$5,000
3. Married, spouse has no income from any source	$2,500
4. Married, filing separate return	$2,500

Dependent's Limited Standard Deduction

If you could be claimed as a dependent on the federal income tax return of another taxpayer and had any unearned income during the year, your allowable standard deduction may not be more than your earned income. Example: A person claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's return has $4,200 interest from a bank account (unearned income) and $1,200 from a summer job (earned income). The standard deduction is $1,200 (the lesser of earned income or $3,000). If this dependent had earned income of $3,200 from the summer job, the full standard deduction of $3,000 would be allowed. All dependents are subject to the limitation. This includes children under age 19 and full-time students under the age of 24 who are eligible to be claimed as dependents on their parents' returns. Remember to check the box on line 5 if you can be claimed as a dependent on someone else's return and had unearned income. NOTE: The return of a taxpayer claiming a child (or other person) as a dependent is not affected if the child is required to claim a limited standard deduction.

VIRGINIA ITEMIZED DEDUCTIONS

Complete lines 44-46 to compute your allowable Virginia itemized deduction amount. The state and local income tax claimed as an itemized deduction on your federal return is not allowed as a Virginia deduction.

Line 44. Total federal itemized deductions

Enter the total claimed on federal Schedule A.

Line 45. State and local income tax

Enter the amount of state and local income tax allowed on your federal Schedule A. Before making an entry on this line, check to see if your total itemized deductions were limited on your federal return. If your federal adjusted gross income is more than $132,950 or $66,475 if married, filing a separate federal return, your deduction may be limited. The amount of state and local income tax reported on Schedule A must be reduced proportionately to reflect any reduction in total itemized deductions. Complete the worksheet if you are subject to the limitation. If you did not claim any state and local income tax on federal Schedule A, enter "0.00" on this line.

Line 46. Virginia Itemized Deductions

Subtract line 45 from line 44. Be sure you enter this total on line 11.

Nonresident Allocation Percentage Schedule

Complete this schedule to determine the percentage of your income derived from Virginia sources. Each type of income listed is from TOTAL INCOME shown on the federal individual income tax return with the exception of lines 58 and 59. Complete this schedule UNLESS all of your income is from Virginia sources. If all of your income is from Virginia sources, enter "100%" on line 16, Form 763, page 1.

LINES 47 THROUGH 59, COLUMN A:

Lines 47 through 57. For each type of income listed, enter in Column A the amount reported as income on your federal individual income tax return. NOTE: Do not reduce this income by any adjustments to income shown on your federal individual income tax return.

Line 58. Enter the amount from Form 763, line 29.

Line 59. Enter the total lump-sum and accumulation distributions from Form 763, line 30.

LINES 47 THROUGH 59, COLUMN B:

For each type of income listed in Column A, enter in Column B the portion of the income that is from Virginia sources. Income from Virginia sources includes:

1. Items of income gain, loss and deductions attributable to:
 - a. The ownership of any interest in real or tangible personal property in Virginia;
 - b. A business trade, profession, or occupation carried on in Virginia; and
 - c. Prizes paid by the Virginia Lottery Department, and gambling winnings from wagers placed or paid at a location in Virginia.

For example, wages from a Virginia employer or the gain on the sale of real estate in Virginia.

2. Income from intangible personal property, including annuities, dividends, interest, royalties and gains from the disposition of intangible personal property employed by an individual in a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in this state (for example: dividend income from a Virginia S corporation).
3. Exception for Certain Nonresidents: Residents of Kentucky, Maryland, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and the District of Columbia who meet the "Exceptions for Certain Nonresidents" of these instructions are not required to file a Virginia return if their only income from Virginia sources was from salaries and wages. If these individuals have business income from Virginia sources, other than from salaries and wages, only that other business income should be entered in Column B. For most nonresidents, the income shown on lines 48, 49 and 58, Column A, is not considered income from Virginia sources. For example, if a nonresident earned interest from a bank account or dividends from a corporation located in Virginia, that income is intangible income and therefore would generally not be entered in Column B. Virginia does not tax nonresident individuals on intangible income except as noted in number 2 above.

Line 60. Total lines 47 through 59, Column A and Column B.

Line 61. Divide line 60, Column B, by line 60, Column A, and report the result as a percentage amount to one decimal place, showing no more than 100% or less than 0%. Example: 0.3163 becomes 31.6%. Enter the percentage here and on line 16, Form 763, page 1.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Estimated Income Tax Filing

If you did not have enough Virginia income tax withheld, you may need to pay estimated income tax. Generally, you are required to make payments of estimated income tax if your estimated Virginia tax liability exceeds your Virginia withholding and other tax credits by more than $150.

To make estimated tax payments, File Form 760ES.

If you owe a large amount of tax, you may need to increase the amount of tax withheld or make estimated tax payments during the year.

You may be penalized if you underpaid your estimated tax or did not have enough tax withheld.

Addition To Tax For Underpayment Of Tax

Even if your return results in a refund, you may owe an "addition to tax" for underpaying your withholding or estimated tax. Virginia law requires that you pay your income tax in timely installments throughout the year by having income tax withheld or making payments of estimated tax. If you do not pay at least 90% of your tax in this manner, you may be charged an addition to tax.

There are four (quarterly) installment periods for determining whether you underpaid your tax for the year. If your taxable year is from January 1 through December 31, your quarterly payments are due May 1, June 15, September 15, and January 15 (of the following year). Underpayments are determined as of each installment due date, so an overpayment in one quarter cannot cancel out an underpayment for a previous quarter. The addition to tax does not apply if each payment is made on time and:

- the total tax paid through withholding and timely estimated tax payments is at least 90% (66 2/3% for farmers, fishermen or merchant seamen) of the current year's tax liability (after nonrefundable credits) or 100% of last year's tax liability (after nonrefundable credits);
- the sum of the quarterly underpayments for the year is $150 or less; or
- you meet one of the exceptions computed on Form 760C or Form 760F.

Form 760C Exceptions

If you meet any of the exceptions summarized below, the addition to tax is voided for that period. You must file Form 760C to show that you meet Exception 3 or 4 below. The department will automatically determine if Exception 1 or 2 is met, so you do not have to file Form 760C if you meet either of these exceptions.

- 1) The total amount of tax paid and withheld from January 1 through the installment due date equals or exceeds the portion of the prior year's total income tax liability that would have been due at each quarter if four equal quarterly payments were required. The prior year must cover a 12 month period.
- 2) The total amount of tax paid and withheld from January 1 through the installment due date equals or exceeds the amount that would have been due each quarter if four equal quarterly payments were required and your tax was recomputed for the prior year using 2001 rates and personal exemptions.

- 3) The total payments equal or exceed 90% of the tax for each installment period computed on annualized income.
- 4) Total payments equal or exceed 90% of the income tax computed on the actual income received for the first four, five and eight months of the taxable year.

Farmers, Fishermen and Merchant Seamen

If you are a calendar year taxpayer and your self-employment income from farming, fishing or working as a merchant seaman is at least two-thirds of your gross income, you are not required to file Form 760ES or pay the estimated tax as long as your income tax return is filed and the tax due is paid on or before March 1, 2002. If you meet this special rule, check the "Farmers, Fishermen and Merchant Seamen" box in the signature section on Form 763. If your return will not be filed and the tax will not be paid on or before this date, you are required to make only one estimated tax payment on or before January 15, 2002.

When to file Form 760C or Form 760F

The department will automatically assume that your income and withholding were even throughout the year and determine if you were underpaid or if you meet exception 1 or 2 above. It is not necessary to file Form 760C, unless your situation is different. If it is, you may be liable for a lower addition to tax than what the department would automatically compute. If you meet exception 3 or 4 above, or if your income varied during the year, you should complete Form 760C to show when the income was received and what the addition to tax should be.

Attach Form 760C or Form 760F to your return when you file.

If you were not required to make 4 equal quarterly installment payments, you must file Form 760C to show what your estimated tax liability was for each quarter. Otherwise, the department will assume that four equal installment payments were due and make an assessment accordingly. This may result in a larger assessment for the addition to tax than would be computed if you filed Form 760C.

Penalties And Interest

If you do not file a return and pay the tax due by the due date or if you file a fraudulent return, you may be subject to penalties and interest.

Late Filing and Late Payment Penalties

If you do not file your return or pay the full amount of tax due by the due date, the penalty is 6% of the tax due for each month or part of a month the return/payment is late. For any month that the late filing penalty is imposed, the late payment penalty will not apply. The total of late filing and late payment penalties cannot be more than 30% of the tax due.

Civil Penalty

The civil penalty for filing a false or fraudulent return or for failing or refusing to file any return with intent to evade the tax, is an additional penalty of 100% of the correct tax.

Criminal Penalty

If you willfully fail or refuse to file a return at the time required by law, or make any false statement in a return with intent to defraud the state, the criminal penalty is imprisonment for up to one year, or a fine not exceeding $2,500, or both. Persons who willfully complete and file a return that they do not believe to be true and correct are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both.

Extension Penalty

If you obtained an extension of time for filing your return and the amount of tax due when filed exceeds 10% of the total tax liability, a penalty for understating the tentative tax on your extension request will be added at the rate of ½ of 1 percent per month (or part of a month) from the original due date of the return to the date of filing.

Interest

If your tax is not paid by the due date, interest will be assessed. Interest on any tax due and/or applicable penalty will be added at the daily interest rate established in accordance with Section 58.1-15 of the Code of Virginia from the date the tax (or unpaid balance) became due until it is paid. The interest rate is 2% over the federal "underpayment rate." The current daily interest rate factor is available by calling 804-367-8031.

Amended Return Filing

When To File

If you file an amended federal return reflecting a change in your taxable income or any other amount that would affect the Virginia return, you must file an amended state tax return within ninety days.

If the change reduces the tax, the Department of Taxation by law may issue a refund only if the amended return is filed within:

- three years from the due date of the original return, including valid filing extensions;
- one year from the final determination of the amended federal return or federal change, whichever is later, provided that the allowable refund is not more than the decrease in Virginia tax attributable to the federal change or correction;
- two years from the filing of an amended Virginia return resulting in the payment of additional tax, provided that the current amended return raises issues relating solely to the prior amended return and that the refund does not exceed the amount of the tax payment made as a result of the prior amended return; or
- two years from the payment of an assessment, provided the amended return raises issues relating only to the prior assessment and the refund does not exceed the amount of tax paid on the prior assessment.

Form 763

To amend Form 763, complete a new return (for the tax year you are amending) using the corrected figures, as if it were the original return. Write "Amended" at the top. Do not make any adjustments to the amended return to show that you received a refund or paid a balance due as a result of the original return.

Required Attachments

If you filed an amended federal return, attach a copy of your federal Form 1040X or other claim form and supporting material to your amended Virginia return to substantiate the amendment. If amending your Virginia return for other reasons, attach a statement to explain why you are amending your return. Show any computations necessary to verify the adjustments you are making. Staple your check or money order to the lower left corner of your return if you owe a balance due. Also, staple to your return, any additional Forms W-2 or 1099 if claiming more income tax withheld than what was claimed on your original return.

Federal Adjustments

If your federal income tax return was adjusted by the Internal Revenue Service during the taxable year, and the adjustment was not reported to the Virginia Department of Taxation, an amended Virginia return must be filed, with a copy of the federal adjustments attached, within ninety days after the final determination of such federal change, correction or renegotiation. See "When to File" earlier in this section for more information.

Net Operating Losses

Although there is no express statutory provision for a separate Virginia net operating loss available for carryback or carryover, the amount of federal net operating loss is the starting point in computing the amount of deduction to be allowed on the Virginia return. Taxpayers must file an "amended" Virginia return for the year of the deduction, if carried back. Instructions for computing and claiming this loss are in 23 Virginia Administrative Code (VAC) 10-110-80 through 87, available from the Department of Taxation, Forms Request Unit, P.O. Box 1317, Richmond, VA 23218-1317. Telephone 804-236-2760 or 804-236-2761.

Deceased Taxpayers

If a person died during the taxable year or before the due date for filing a return, the personal representative or surviving spouse must file a return for the decedent. Write "DECEASED" in the top center of the return. The personal representative may elect to file a joint return for the decedent and the surviving spouse. If a personal representative has not been appointed, the survivor may file a joint or combined return and indicate in the signature area that he or she is filing as surviving spouse.

If a refund is due, and the return filed is not a joint return with the surviving spouse, a copy of federal Form 1310 or the appropriate court appointment papers must be included with the return so that the refund may be issued in the name of the personal representative.

Address Change

If you move to a new address after filing your return, but before you receive a refund, be sure to file a change of address with your former post office so your refund or any correspondence from the department can be forwarded to you.

Recordkeeping

Keep your tax records for at least three years from the due date of the return or the date the return was filed, whichever is later. If the Internal Revenue Service requires you to keep your federal records for a longer period of time, keep your state records for the same period of time.

Litter Tax

Litter tax is reported on a separate return, Form 200. This tax is imposed on every "person" who was engaged in business as a manufacturer, wholesaler, distributor or retailer of certain enumerated products. "Person" means any natural person, corporation, partnership, administrator, fiduciary, representative, or group of individuals or entities of any kind operating such a business. Litter tax is based on a calendar year. All returns for 2001 are due by May 1, 2002. For more information, call (804) 367-8037.

Taxpayer Bill Of Rights

The Virginia Department of Taxation's mission is to serve our customers by delivering an efficient, courteous, confidential and equitable tax revenue system to Virginia's citizens. The 1996 General Assembly enacted the Virginia Taxpayer Bill of Rights, to ensure protection of taxpayers' rights in the tax determination and collection processes administered by the Department of Taxation. Our goal is to ensure that your rights are protected in all state tax assessment, audit and collections procedures, so that you will have the highest confidence in the integrity of our tax system. For details, you may request the Virginia Taxpayer Bill of Rights publication. This brochure is available from any of the locations listed on page 1 for obtaining forms.

Example

If your taxable income is $90,000, your tax is $720 + 5.75% of the amount over $17,000.
