Part II Declaration and Signature Authorization of Officer
Under penalties of perjury, I declare to be the officer of the above corporation and that I have examined a copy of the corporation's 2020 electronic return and accompanying schedules and statements and to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is true, correct and complete. I further declare that the information provided to my Electronic Return Originator (ERO), Transmitter, or Intermediate Service Provider including the amounts shown in Part I above agrees with the information and amounts shown on the corresponding lines of the corporate electronic income tax return. If filing a balance due return, I authorize the Virginia Department of Taxation (Virginia Tax) and its designated Financial Agent to initiate an ACH electronic funds withdrawal entry to the financial institution account indicated on the 2020 Virginia income tax return for payment of state taxes owed on this return. I also authorize the financial institutions involved in the processing of the electronic payment of taxes to receive confidential information necessary to answer inquiries and resolve issues related to the payment. I certify that the transaction does not directly involve a financial institution outside of the territorial jurisdiction of the United States at any point in the process. I understand that if Virginia Tax does not receive full and timely payment of the tax liability, the corporation will remain liable for the tax liability and all applicable interest and penalties. I authorize my ERO, Transmitter or Intermediate Service Provider to transmit the complete return to Virginia Tax. I have selected a personal identification number (PIN) as my signature for the corporation's electronic income tax return.

ERO Responsibilities

The ERO will:

1. Enter the corporation name and the federal identification number of the corporation at the top of the form.
2. Complete Part I using the amount from the corporation 2019 tax return.
3. Enter or generate, if authorized by the corporate officer, the officer's e-File PIN in the boxes provided in Part II.
4. Enter on the authorization line in Part II the ERO firm name (not the name of the individual preparing the return) if the ERO is authorized to enter the officer's e-File PIN.
5. After completing (1) through (4), give the officer Form VA-8879C for completion and review. This can be done in person or by using the U.S. mail, a private delivery service, email, or an internet website.
6. EROs may sign Part III of the form using the alternative signature methods using a rubber stamp, mechanical device, such as a signature pen, or computer software program. The signature must include either a facsimile of the ERO's signature or of the ERO's printed name.

Note: The ERO must receive the completed and signed Form VA-8879C from the corporate officer before the electronic return or request for refund is transmitted (or released for transmission).

Officer Responsibilities

Officers have the following responsibilities:

1. Verify the accuracy of the prepared corporation income tax return.
2. Check the appropriate box in Part II to authorize the ERO to enter or generate their e-File PIN or choose to do it in person.
3. Indicate or verify their e-File PIN when authorizing the ERO to enter or generate it (the e-File PIN must be five numbers other than all zeros).
4. Sign and date Form VA-8879C.
5. Return the completed Form VA-8879C to the ERO by hand delivery, U.S. mail, private delivery service or fax.
6. Federal banking regulations have imposed additional reporting requirements on all electronic banking transactions that directly involve a financial institution outside of the territorial jurisdiction of the United States at any point in the process. These are called International ACH Transactions (IAT) and include electronic direct debit (tax payments). At present, Virginia Tax does not support IAT. Taxpayers who instruct Virginia Tax to process electronic banking transactions on their behalf are certifying that the transactions do not directly involve a financial institution outside of the territorial jurisdiction of the United States at any point in the process.

Note: Your return or request will not be transmitted to Virginia Tax until the ERO receives your signed Form VA-8879C. Do not send this form to Virginia Tax or to the IRS.
