Instructions and Conditions for Filing an Offer in Compromise

What is an offer in compromise? An offer in compromise is a request to settle an assessment of tax, penalty, and/or interest for less than the amount assessed. Section 58.1-105 of the Code of Virginia allows the Tax Commissioner to settle an assessment through an offer in compromise under certain circumstances, such as extenuating circumstances that prevented timely filing or payment, or in cases where the business can demonstrate that it is not liable for the amounts assessed.

DO NOT USE THIS FORM IF YOU ARE SEEKING RELIEF BECAUSE OF FINANCIAL HARDSHIP. Use Form OIC B-3, Business Offer in Compromise: Doubtful Collectibility, available on our website at www.tax.virginia.gov.

DO NOT FILE AN OFFER IN COMPROMISE IF YOUR BILL IS INCORRECT, unless you are disputing a point of law. For routine matters, such as contesting late filing or verifying a payment, contact the Office of Customer Services at: (804) 367-8037 or P.O. Box 1115, Richmond, VA 23218-1115.

If you believe the assessment is erroneous based on an improper application of the law (as opposed to an administrative error), you may file an administrative appeal pursuant to Sec. 58.1-1821. See Title 23 of the Virginia Administrative Code 10-20-165 and the Virginia Taxpayer Bill of Rights for specific requirements and time limitations for filing an appeal.

- You are not required to make a payment with your offer. If a check is submitted with the offer, it will be deposited upon receipt. Depositing the check does not mean that the offer has been accepted.
- You must include a detailed explanation with your offer in compromise. For a request for waiver of penalty, explain the circumstances that prevented timely filing and/or payment and provide copies of supporting documentation of special circumstances, such as medical conditions, death of a responsible party, etc. For doubtful liability, explain your position and provide supporting documentation, such as applicable provisions of the law, or previous rulings of the Tax Commissioner under similar circumstances.
- Waiver of penalty. The Department of Taxation generally will not consider a request for waiver of penalty in cases where the late filing or late payment was caused by the negligence or error of a professional tax preparer. In addition, a good filing history is not a basis for waiver of penalty in and of itself.
- Waiver of interest. The Department of Taxation generally will not waive interest charges associated with a tax liability unless the taxpayer can prove that doubtful liability or doubtful collectibility exists with respect to the assessment(s).
- Your attorney, tax preparer, or other representative can submit an offer in compromise on your behalf. Both you and your representative must sign the submitted form.
- You will receive a written response to inform you whether your offer has been accepted as offered, accepted with changes, or denied. You must comply with the terms of acceptance, or the acceptance will be voided. Although there is no right of appeal in the offer in compromise process, in the case of a denial you may submit additional information for reconsideration.

Required Documentation:

Failure to submit the required documentation may result in automatic denial of the OIC.

- A letter of circumstance providing a complete explanation of the basis for the offer in compromise. The letter should include, if applicable, a detailed explanation of what caused the error and the steps taken to ensure the error does not happen again.
- Documentation to support claims of illness, injury, or other medical conditions related to the request for relief.
- Documentation to support claims of extenuating circumstances, such as death, divorce, criminal activity, or other legal actions related to the request for relief.
