Instructions and Conditions for Filing an Offer in Compromise

What is an offer in compromise?

An offer in compromise is a request to settle an assessment of tax, penalty, and/or interest for less than the amount assessed. Section 58.1-105 of the Code of Virginia allows the Tax Commissioner to settle an assessment through an offer in compromise under certain circumstances, including potential inability to collect the balance due. If you are currently experiencing financial hardship, doubtful collectibility may exist if you can demonstrate that you cannot pay your tax liabilities in full. To enable us to consider a claim of doubtful collectibility, you must provide a completed financial statement using the Form FIN I-1: Financial Statement for Individuals. You are encouraged to provide any other supporting documentation, such as a letter of circumstance, that will help us evaluate your claim. See the "Recommended Documentation Checklist" on Form FIN I-1, Page 4 for other examples of supporting documentation.

DO NOT USE THIS FORM if you are seeking relief because of doubtful liability, or if you are only requesting waiver of penalty for reasonable cause. Use Form OIC I-2, Individual Offer In Compromise: Penalty Waiver/Doubtful Liability, available on our website at www.tax.virginia.gov.

DO NOT FILE AN OFFER IN COMPROMISE IF YOUR BILL IS INCORRECT. To protest the bill, contact the Office of Customer Services at: (804) 367-8031 or P.O. Box 1115, Richmond, VA 23218-1115.

If you believe the assessment is erroneous based on an improper application of the law (as opposed to an administrative error), you may file an administrative appeal pursuant to Sec. 58.1-1821. See Title 23 of the Virginia Administrative Code 10-20-165 and the Virginia Taxpayer Bill of Rights for specific requirements and time limitations for filing an appeal.

CONDITIONS FOR SUBMITTING AN OFFER IN COMPROMISE

- Your account must be in a current status before an offer in compromise can be considered, which means that all returns due as of the date the offer is submitted must be filed and processed.
- You are not required to make a payment with your offer. If a check is submitted with the offer, it will be deposited upon receipt. Depositing the check does not mean that the offer has been accepted.
- Monthly expenses should be actual and necessary living expenses. There is no table or standard to use in place of your actual monthly expenses. To be necessary, expenses must provide for the health and welfare of you and your family and/or provide for the production of income, and must be reasonable in amount.
- All household income and expenses should be included regardless of relationship of other members of the household and whether they are responsible for the tax debt.
- Your attorney, tax preparer, or other representative can submit an offer in compromise request form on your behalf. Both you and your representative must sign the submitted form.
- You will receive a written response to inform you whether your offer has been accepted as offered, accepted with changes, or denied. You must follow the terms of acceptance, or the acceptance will be voided. Although there is no right of appeal in the offer in compromise process, in the case of a denial you may submit additional information for reconsideration.

Required Documentation:

- Current FIN I-1: Financial Statement for Individuals fully completed.
- Form OIC-Fee, Payment for Doubtful Collectibility Offer In Compromise, with payment.
- Complete copies of the three most recent statements for each bank, investment, and retirement account.

Recommended Documentation

- See the "Recommended Document Checklist" on Form FIN I-1, Page 4 for a list of applicable documentation.
